Our Direct Privacy Policy

We determine to only use your personal information in a way that is fair. We will only collect information where it is unavoidably necessary for us to do so and we will only collect information if it is relevant to our dealings with you. All directly shared information, intended between us when collected and stored is thereby held only locally to enable the smooth department of our services to you and is not directly disclosed to third parties.

We determine to ensure that all personal information which is knowingly held within our possession and within our locally mounted data storage units is processed in accordance with the requirements of the European General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and Data Protection Act (DPA) and thereby it is not, at all, intended in any way to expose your information – unless other than expressly agreed in writing or by agreement prior to public display. Responses to our information campaigns via Twitter and / or Facebook will be dealt with under those providers' Privacy Protection Policies. For our part, what personal information we collect will be bound by the nature of that information that you provide directly in dealings with us for the purposes of your enquiries and communications with us, alone. E.g., telephone numbers, email addresses and physical mailing addresses forwarded directly to us in our communications with you.

If you would rather that we shall not process and / or manage your data anymore, please put such requests in writing to: enquiries@english-vc.com
